Rules and regulations

1. Age of goats will be as shown adjacent to each class in the show schedule
2. All animals Must be on grounds one hour before start of judging for height verification on day of show
3. Exhibitors must pay an entry fee into the show ground
4. If a show has a designated stock removal time then exhibitors are required to remain at the showground for the time stipulated by that show society
5. ALL Animals MUST be NLIS ear tagged and the tag must correspond with what is listed on the registration certificate and confirmed prior to commencement of judging
6. All animals to be accompanied by a fully completed waybill
7. All Goats must be owned by the exhibitor as recorded on the registration certificate unless under a lessee's agreement where the lessee becomes the legal owner of the animal for the period of the lease & the animal must be entered in ownership of the lessee.
8. Exhibitors and cadets must be a current financial social or full member at close of entries. MGBA members with any outstanding membership fees on the 1st January with the Miniature Goat Breeders Association of Australia Inc. will not be eligible to compete at any MGBA shows for that year unless all outstanding fees are paid. Cadets may have their animals exhibited on the day provided they are prepared and exhibited by other people. One cadet per show, minimum 20 classes to be judged to count as one show.
9. Classes are open to AMGR/MGBA registered Australian Miniature goats. Juniors under 12mths up to 53.3cm. Bucks 12mths & under 24mths up to 57cm. Does over 12mths up to 57cm. Adult does must not exceed 57cm. Bucks/wethers over 24mths not to exceed 60cm. All Animals will be measured in prior to the commencement of judging and catalogue signed by chief steward. Animals are to be brought up to the measuring station as directed by the measuring steward.
10. Bucks must be in the control of an adult handler at all times or tethered in trailer or pen.
11. Animals should be good breed examples and must NOT have horns. All animals must be in healthy condition, free of ticks, lice and visible signs of diseases or health problems. It is desirable that goats have been vaccinated
12. To be eligible to compete Exhibitors must follow the directions of the Judge and Steward while in or around the ring and be ready to enter their class on time.
13. All animals must be in the control of a competent handler at all times. Animals should behave quietly and show good manners in and out of the show ring. Unruly animals will be excused from the ring.
14. Exhibitors must present themselves in smart casual attire and must wear closed in shoes. No Exhibitor, animal or equipment may display any form of identification as to the name of the animal while in the show ring.
15. Exhibitors must communicate to the Judge through the steward. Exhibitors are not permitted to talk to Judge prior to or during judging, unless spoken to by the Judge.
16. Animals, exhibitors and handlers are to conduct themselves in an exemplary manor at all times. Unruly animals, cruel, abusive, or disruptive exhibitors/handlers will be excused from the ring and will be prevented from competing in further classes. All entry fees and other such costs will be forfeited and offenders may be banned from future shows. All problems/disputes must be quietly discussed with Steward without disrupting the Judge or the class(es). The Steward may stop a class if the Steward feels it is necessary and if the problem relates directly to the class in progress and the Steward thinks they can rectify it without disrupting the class. The Steward may call any person(s) to assist with resolving the problem including the Judge and the decision made by the Steward at that time, will be final. Ribbons/awards once placed will not be removed to re-judge class(es). All disputes/problems must be documented. Un-resolved disputes are to be submitted in writing, signed and posted to the MGBAA Secretary within 7 days of the show.
17. No exhibitor may withdraw or remove an animal from a Class after it has commenced, or remove them from the show ring, before the class is over and the judge's comments have concluded and without the permission of the Steward.
18. If an exhibitor voluntarily removes an animal from the ring without the permission of the Steward, the exhibitor will be disqualified and all their entries from all future classes at that show and all prizes and entry fees for the entire show will be forfeited. (excludes accidents)
19. It is a condition of entry that Champion, Reserve Champion, Grand Champion and Supreme exhibits stand to be photographed, prior to the end of the show for recording and promotion of show results. Failure to do so will result in disqualification of exhibit, award/s being permanently removed and forfeiture of entry fees. Photos and results of classes / animals will be published as the Show Society / MGBAA require. All photos TAKEN BY THE MGBA REMAIN the Property of the MGBA AND COPYRIGHT RULES APPLY
20. The MGBA recognizes the position, rulings and directives of the Royal Agricultural Society in all matters relating to Society Shows and will follow their guidelines in situations where no rule has been provided for in these rules.
21. The chief steward/show organiser reserves the right to make alterations to classes prior to the catalogue being printed. Incorrect entries will be transferred into the correct class
22. MGBAA Show Rules apply. MGBAA Inc Breed Standards, Heights and Regulations will govern breed related issues IN ALL CASES
23. There will be no refund of Entry fees after the closing date for the show
24. MGBAA show rules apply

This Society will not under any circumstances hold itself liable for any accident, loss, damage or non- delivery of livestock or other exhibits at the Society's Show, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold this Society blameless and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising through any accident, loss, non-delivery or damage whatsoever.
